“Young men shall see visions” Young adults prayer meeting at U.W.

On February 25, 2007, the Korean Services Committee (KSC) sponsored a prayer meeting at the University of Washington Newman Center to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal Movement.

Twenty seven people, including fifteen young adults from Seattle, Tacoma and Vancouver, BC attended the prayer meeting to commemorate the event at Duquesne University where a fire of the Holy Spirit started and spread throughout much of the world. They experienced the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the same manner that was unique to Pentecostalism at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh in 1967.

In attendance at the prayer meeting were Deacon Joseph Lee (Chairman of KSC), Virginia King (Executive Director of WWCCR) and Julia Lee (Executive Director of KSC). Three young people drove over four hours from Vancouver, BC to join us at the prayer meeting.

It was marked as “the response of the Christian community to the needs of young people, and the sharing of the unique gifts of youth with the larger community.”

The session was led by Mr. Andrew Lee and the music ministry was done by Daniel Lee. It started with a brief description of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal Movement, followed by what happened at Duquesne University, and the role of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives. Several people shared their testimonies, emphasizing how the Holy Spirit touched their lives.

Virginia commented that just like the Israelites entered the Promised Land after 40 years, we too are ready to enter the Promised Land. She was delighted to see young leaders, who will be leading us into the Promised Land. Deacon Joseph Lee added that this is a historic moment in which the fire of the Holy Spirit will open a new chapter in the Catholic Charismatic Movement. The session ended with attending the liturgy with the other college students from University of Washington.

It was realized how much Young people have a hunger for connection, to be in relationship with the Holy Spirit,

This event's initiative is one of KSC's long time goals which are rooted with "spread the spirituality of Pentecost" to the next generation with the grace of God and with willingness and creativity.
